The Sing Songs

All Y.U. boys gather round
 Since you've run us Stern Girls to the ground
 Now's the time to take a cue
 From all these hints we have for you

Invitations we slave to write
 But you shrug them off with words so slight
 You would moan and groan if you weren't invited
 You would rant and rave and get all excited

At the socials you're such a bore
 Making conversation seems quite a chore
 Maybe one day you boys will care
 To learn a little "Savoir Faire".

You stand in groups of threes and fours
 Like you've never seen a girl before
 And when you see "her" your buddies wager
 Whether you'll approach her and say, "What's your major?"

So you walk out with the girl of your choice
 And soon you hear in a still small voice
 "Oh my goodness, it's almost one!"
 Darn, you think, no time for fun.

So back to Y.U. our hero must go
 A few hours shot and low on dough
 You call her up the very next night
 And finally get through much to your delight

But when you ask her for a date
 You find out you're a week too late
 She just made plans for a month or so
 With Ronnie, Don, Jack and Joe.

You rant and rave about your lack
 But really pal who's asking you back
 So go uptown young man and stay
 We don't like social rejects anyway

SURE WE WANT A BROTHER SCHOOL
 BUT WHY YOU?

*****

So they're moving us uptown after all.

Incident of Vashti

Oldestanlargestville, U.S.A., BCE, UYI. News of King Hartzashvarosh's choice of homecoming queen echoed through the seventeen branches of the kingdom. Eyebrows were raised but no one dared utter that obvious question, "Whatever happened to Vashti, former sweetheart of Hartzzi's harem?"

Immediately following the decree, Vashti protested to Herman Herbele of WYC radio, famed critic of station WSCW, that the king was influenced by right-wing factions.

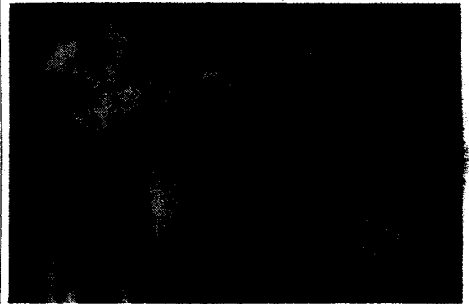

It was reported by UYI (United Yentas International) that a rally is being planned by Vashti's faction to counteract the decision that excluded her from being Queen of the Homecoming Weekend. (Close friends disclosed that Vashti feels that the king's displeasure stems from her myopia, fumbling hands, and spreading excema.) It seems that an unknown, Esther Mizrahi, has found favor in Hartzzi's eyes and he is presently constructing a palatial abode for her under the pseudonym of Memorial Chapel.

Apparently these radicals who have influenced good King

Hartzzi were sent over by the Commies to undermine the "mainstream" of thought that has been upheld in Oldestanlargestville for centuries.

Why was Esther picked homecoming queen? Could it be that there will be a homecoming?

Seek and Ye shall find.

Dear Editor:

While on our last mission of breaking up the narcotics ring of SMERSH it was reported that the girls at Stern College for Women get fixes. However after a thorough investigation (and we do mean thorough) we have been unable to uncover the cache of their contraband.

Please clarify.

Thank you
Yaacov Bond and Fishele Leiter

Dear Mr. Bond and Mr. Leiter

Cool it. Our girls as members of the vice squad of the 35th st. precinct have only one type of fix — marriage-wanna (marijuana)

Dear Editor:

We would hereby like to officially notify you that the building on 15 E. 27th St. is hereby condemned. After much inspection we have found this building to be a firetrap. We base our conclusions on the following: no general alarm — if there should ever be a fire what housemother is going to run through the fire and smoke-filled halls pushing a buzzer — second the girls, who are suffering from iron deficiency anemia; would not have the energy to exit from the building — thirdly the girls have expressed great interest in burning the building down, and would, therefore, not even care to leave.

my chagrin it is full of teachers who keep sneering at me. I can't figure out why they look a little funny themselves, with elbows in their mouths, briefcases managing to slip to around ankle-height, cigarettes spewing ashes everywhere!

What would you advise me to do to improve this situation?

Sincerely,
In A Huff

Dear In A Huff:

I'm sure you're agitating yourself in vain. Don't you realize that next year you'll be in your new building . . .

And there is no elevator there!

LASHON HARAH

(Melody: Merry Widow Waltz)

Stern's linguistic possibilities are few; Administrative members here are quite a crew. For the Language Major We highly recommend: Knopka, 'Bella Doro!' Boks, and Krakowski.

French at Stern is really something EFFROYABLE! It's TERRIBLE; IMPOSSIBLE; C'EST DOMMAGE!

Look at the statistics: They will indicate; DE PLUS EN PLUS, IL Y A MOINS A MOINS DE FILLES EN CLASSE.

SPANOL A Stern is really quite MUY MAL. For a VERBO, we go LOCO

All the time. First we learn del Rio, — And Cervantes too. MIRA MIRA — Knopka's here—A . . . THAT'S A SPANISH name? ? ? ?

Deutsch at Stern IST NICHT SO GUT, Why should it be?

The other languages don't justify the fee. Why dedicate four years Straining one's humble brain— When all one must know in vernacular Is 'DONKEY * SHANE!'

So you see the problem here is quite acute. To the one who dares to venture: We salute! Look at the statistics; No numbers you will trace. Language majors here at Stern's A fading race.

VICTORY?

(Melody: Triumphal March from AIDA)

We marched into Stern's narrow halls, Glowing with youthful blush. We expected much . . . Well — you see What it turned Out to be!

We marched into its corridors Peering through darkness thick: Stumbling on Aging stairs; Wond' ring if Somebody cares . . .

Through the required stuff— Through much red tape and bluff— Through the bureaucracy We love so well!

Yet now, as we prepare to leave Fondly we a sigh we heave! How could we forget— Celnik's walk, Keller's talk, Eidelberg.

Four years in this unique program We have all muddled through. We pass on to you: Lousy faculty, Greasy cookery, Mangy Chagigot, Rarely T'filot, Insufficient room, Population boom; Have a ball! Hall: VICTORY !!
