

View in browser

Based on a number of inquiries the Office of Alumni Affairs has received, YU faculty and staff are invited to join the presentation about this very important topic.

Addressing Anti-Zionism and Antisemitism in Your Workplace and Beyond

Online panel discussion with YU alumni experts Joel Strauss '86YC, Lawrence Askowitz '87YC and Ariella Noveck '11SB

Wednesday, Dec. 6, 2023
8-9 p.m.

Preregistration required • Free of charge

Register

Submit your questions to the panel when you register.

Joel Strauss

Joel B. Strauss is a Partner at the law firm of Kaplan Fox & Kilsheimer LLP. He is an Adjunct Instructor in the Political Science Department at Stern College and has taught and chaired numerous career guidance and counseling programs, including “Being Orthodox in the Unorthodox Workplace.”

Lawrence Askowitz

Lawrence Askowitz is Managing Director at the Bank Street Group. He serves as a Board Advisor to Xchange Telecom, as a Board Director to StandWithUs New York, and the Sy Syms School of Business.

Ariella Noveck

Ariella Noveck is a media and communications professional with over a decade of expertise in broadcast news, public affairs, and Israel advocacy. Ariella has several years of experience educating and preparing high school students on combatting antisemitism and preparing for life on college campus.

RISE UP
The Campaign for 613

Visit our web site | Make a gift to YU

You are subscribed to receive emails from the Office of Alumni Affairs.
You can manage your subscriptions with the Manage My Subscriptions form.

Yeshiva University Office of Alumni Affairs

500 West 185th Street | Belfer Hall 7th Floor | New York, NY 10033
646.592.4490 | alumni@yu.edu

Unsubscribe