UNIVERSITY CLUB HEARS DR. POOL

The Jewish University Club, formed under the auspices of the Women's Branch of the Union of Orthodox Congregations of America, held its third meeting on Monday night, February 25, in the Student Union South and Portuguese Synagogue, 100 Central Park West.

The guest speaker of the evening was Rabbi David de Sola Pool who presented an interesting and pertinent lecture on "The Relationship Between Judaism and Fascism." Pointing out that Judaism and Fascism are not compatible in any event of the steady trend of Jewish thought and customs against it. Rabbi Pool also emphasized that Fascism and all other miasmata, which he contends, is nothing but another manifestation of the same spirit, have nothing in their ideology to offer the Jew. He further stressed that the former is continually striving to deprive the Jew of his political rights.

ALUMNI DRAW SEASON PLANS

Theatre Party March 7th

At the third meeting of the Alumni of Yeshiva College held in the reception room of the college dormitory on Sunday afternoon, February 24, final plans were drawn up for an Alumni Theatre Party. Opinions were also heard as to the proposed dinner dance to be given on commencement eve, by the Alumni. Assuming the gavel of President in the absence of Lewis Engleberg, president of Alumni ’32 and Rabbi Mendel Lewin, vice president, Israel Friedman, ’33, called on Alumnus Sid Green ’34, who gave a report on the activities of the Theatre Committee, and announced that "Awake and Sing," had been chosen as the best play for the affair.

"Monroe Doctrine" Urged by Friedman, Head of Students Organization of Yeshiva

The resolution adopted by the College Student Council announcing the formation of a new dormitory committee to take full charge of the work at hand, in the absence of Lewis Engleberg, president of Alumni ’32 and Rabbi Mendel Lewin, vice president, Israel Friedman, ’33, called on Alumnus Sid Green ’34, who gave a report on the activities of the Theatre Committee, and announced that "Awake and Sing," had been chosen as the best play for the affair.

JOINT EXERCISES FOR YESHIVA AND BETH MEDRASH

A long-established custom of the Yeshiva will be resumed for the first time in a number of years when the Congregation Beth Medrash and Beth Medrash of the University of Cincinnati will hold a joint exercise at the New York Hebrew Institute on Thursday, February 27.

The occasion commands special interest at the present time in view of the fact that a joint commencement of the Yeshiva has been held since 1920. Candidates for the rabbinate have not been publicly ordained since that time, and the exercises have not taken place for two years.

Outstanding personalities in New York Jewry have been invited to participate in the event, and it is expected that the auditorium will be well filled.

The exercises will be conducted by President Bernard Revel, who will award degrees to the graduates. Following the exercises, a dinner is to be held in honor of the graduates. The ordination will take place at the Yeshiva College, and will be attended by representatives from all metropolitan congregations.

STUDENT BANK STARTED

Continuing the efforts to foster a fuller student life in Yeshiva College, the Student Council has added to its ever increasing list of student's facilities a student's bank, as safeguarding of student funds and checking of the depository bids fair to all long-term needs of the student body.

Yeshiva College Offer Course in Teaching General Methods of Hebrew

New Course Will Train High School Teachers at Request of Board of Education

Following a recent ruling of the Board of Education of New York City prohibiting Hebrew as a regular language in all secondary schools, Yeshiva College has announced that it will offer a new course this term, to be called General Methods of Teaching Hebrew in Secondary Schools.

The course is to be given at the request of the Board of Education which feels that it has neither the experience nor the facilities for such a course. It is for this reason, according to reliable sources, that the leading theological seminaries of the city have been chosen to train the new educational staff, which eventually will be taken over by the city.

Course Prerequisite

All candidates for licenses as Hebrew teachers in New York City secondary schools must have this new course as a prerequisite, in addition to the other required subjects.

Since the first examinations for licenses as Hebrew teachers will be given this coming March, those candidates taking this new course will not be exempted. In the future, however, no applicant will be admitted to a license without having already taken the course.

Latest information from administration indicates that the course will extend over two terms, one of a lecture week on Monday afternoon from 4:00 P.M. until 6:00 P.M. There is a change in the schedule, by the administration being aimed to secure Mr. Samuel Katchoris, head of the French and Hebrew departments of Abraham Lincoln High School, to present the course. All will depend, however, on the registration.

Already over this course, applications have been received for registration in the course, and a much larger group is expected to join before the course officially opens.

If registration continues at the present rate which has been quite surprising for such a specialized field, the opening class will extend well over fifty prospective Hebrew teachers.

Center To Be Used

Although it had originally been understood that the course was to be given in the Yeshiva College Building, plans indicate that the facilities of the Jewish Center at 25th Street will be used, since the Center is more convenient and is much more easily accessible to students. All parts of the course will be in the Center.

(Continued on page 4)

(Continued on page 4)

(Continued on page 4)

(Continued on page 4)
The Commentator
Official Undergraduate Newspaper of Yeshiva College
Published Twice Monthly Throughout the College Year at Yeshiva College
Washington Heights, New York City

GOVERNING BOARD

Moses I. Feuerstein
Managing Editor

Menachem Feuerstein '36
Managing Editor

Simon Novick
Managing Editor

Mordecai Gabriel
Neat Editor

William Kaufman
Sports Editor

Seymour Rosenfeld
Business Manager

NEWS STAFF

Theodore Adams '35

Albert Margolis '36

Hyman Aronoff '35

William Margolis '37

Wolf Bierman '36

Benjamin Drimmel '37

Gershon Ficker '35

Samuel Peretz '37

Saul Gorenstein '38

Boris Rabinowitz '37

Herbert Hurewitz '38

Herbert Krimer

Nathan Tarragin '37

Georgie Silver '37

Ishdore Skidelsky '37

BUSINESS STAFF

SAD ADELMAN '38

IRVING LASTER '38

Martin Azoff '35

Silverman '36

Irwin Zolt '36

CONTRIBUTING STAFF

SOL LIEBER '37

Kosinski III '37

Myron Sall '38

Morris Zelman '37

Morris Weis '36

Asher Bloch '33

David Goldwater '35

Abraham Greenberg '36

David Petegorsky '35

The Executive Committee of Student Council assumes full responsibility for all statements contained in the newspaper.

Published at the Yockville Printery, 206 East 85th Street, New York City.

EDITORIALS

Let No Quibbling Daunt Us

It is a matter of considerable surprise to us that the participation of orthodox Jewry in the Jewish life today, the strangest and most disheartening is the fact that the majority of the students at the Yeshiva College, which is part of the Jewish Community Organization that most violently opposes the introduction of the festival by will of this country.

On the last two pages of the newspaper, we have compiled a list of those who, in our opinion, have stooped will.

For the Editor of The Commentator.

To the Editor of The Commentator.

The spirit of expression of Yeshiva College.

(Shelley R. Saffir)

How Long Will Orthodoxy Slumber?

We have already given our allegiance to those who have been the pioneers in the field of Yeshiva College, to the students who have been the leaders in the spiritual and intellectual life of the College.

To the Editor of The Commentator.

The spirit of expression of Yeshiva College.

(Alphonse D. Taffe)

Real Men-Me

However, the most interesting of the two articles is that which is entitled "The Spirit of the New." This is a piece that was written by a student who is well known in the College for his work with the student government and the Student Life Council.

To the Editor of The Commentator.

The spirit of expression of Yeshiva College.

(Alphonse D. Taffe)
Yeshiva College Cagers Rout City College
Evening Beavers, to the Score of 23 -- 14
MAGER STEALS SHOW IN INSPIRED GAME

In a game as inspiring in its results as it was properly played by the visiting team, the Yeshiva College quintet, turning in the most polished performance of the season, broke the biggest sweat of the year’s schedule by defeating the C.C.N.Y. Evening Beavers, 23 to 14.

Ner] was this victory a stroke of luck for the team? Was it due to the opening whistle, the crowd was amazed by an inspired Yeshiva five. Yes, the team was even passing the ball—and with correct form. So everyone realized that this was the long-awaited game in which the varsity would display all its "stuff."

Jumping into the lead in the first quarter, 6-3, City College soon fell victims to its own hot pace. The determined Yeshiva quintet knew, however, that the night was not the night of the name of mighty City College was doomed to defeat.

The turning-point came in the second quarter. Till that time the Yeshiva was not really playing a beautiful passing game, but its shooting eye was just a little to the side of the basket. Working up the pressure defense in the second quarter, the Yeshiva scored 30 points in perfect position to score time and time again; but shot after shot was eaten by the Yeshiva basket which would have none of them.

But when Mager came in for Good-

In the second of a series of intramural basketball games, played on

JUNIORS BOW TO FROSH BASKETEERS

In the second of a series of intramural basketball games, played on Thursday evening, February 21, the Freshman five defeated the Junior quintet in a fast moving game, by the score of 14-11. The Juniors, who couldn’t get started until late in the contest, showed an obvious need of prac-n the first quarter, the basket yield, and from then on even helped the ball a few times over the hoop. It was Mager again who stole the show and played the star game of the evening. He never left the court for the rest of the game and neither did Yeshia poor beginning and a lack of cooperation on the part of the Juniors enabled the Frosh to pile up a score of 19-3 in the first three periods. The Juniors made an uphill fight of it in the fourth quarter and tallied six points in succession, to make the score 15-4. Soon afterwards Seal sank a basket for the Yearlings which was followed by a beautiful shot by Marine of the Juniors making it 14-11. The game ended soon afterwards.

Marine of the Juniors took scoring honors for the evening with five points, while Titelbaum and Ribber of the Frosh were next with four counts apiece.

SHIVA STUCK BY NEEDLE-MEN

Pricked, 17-21

Valiant basketball efforts to meet the school, in a nip time open with

SHIVA STUCK BY NEEDLE-MEN

Pricked, 17-21

Yeshiva’s last half drive proved too much for the men in violet, who so, the N.Y.U. School of Law quintet went down in defeat 28-21. Leading by 11-

10 at half time, Yeshiva quickly increased its margin, the score gradually climbing until the Blue and White led 25-14. With a minute and thirty seconds remaining, N.Y.U. failed to come to life, but it was but a bit too late. The violet five scored 7 points in rapid succession, but both the score and time were too forwarded, so the lawyers had to admit defeat.

Levy opened the scoring in the second half with a successful shot from the center. The basket and Greenstein soon followed for N.Y.U. Yeshiva began to pile up the points with Krieger leading the attempts. The gym was filled with cheers and when Red Kasten whipped the leather through the ring for a foul, pandemonium broke loose. With the injection in their ears, the boys in Blue and White arose to the occasion and did not stop until they had amassed 11 consecutive points, to lead 24-14. N.Y.U. now assumed the offensive, but to no avail. The violet five was up against Mager, the diminutive star of the

MACMILLAN'S RESEARCH LIBRARY

The Commentator
Yelps Mere Music, Students Find

Dormitory students were startled the other evening by a succession of unsightly howls, groans and yelps, faintly reminiscent of stegosaurus in agony. The consensus of opinion seems to have been that, from trumpets and fiddles, the boys had taken to harboring such pets as colle-striken calves.

Investigation, however, proved otherwise. As the disorder seemed to center about the second floor social hall, several of the more adventurous souls directed their attention thither. The disturbance proved to be nothing but several fine specimens of pure oriental music which Dr. Dames was demonstrating in his course in music appreciation. It appears that oriental music is not one of the more highly regarded forms of social entertainment in Yeshiva College.

WE SEE TO SEE

(Continued from page 3)

Once a master displayed remarkable courage and audacity in maintaining his post for more than the usual tenure of office. Before long it was whispered about that Yeshiva would soon be the stage for a brutal lynching (or "Mashkathe", in milder terminology) — and the postmaster peacefully resigned. Owning to this prankish authority, the installation of a new postmaster is usually shrouded in mysterious uncertainty. These officials, too, are highly inefficient and egotistic. Therefore, whenever one expects a decisive letter from his lady-friend, he dreads it most to advise him as mail-carrier for that week, or else...

It has been suggested that the girls in the office be employed, for their boast of easily and effectively handling "Yeshiva Mail."

COUNCIL FORMS DORM COMMITTEE

(Continued from page 1)

about all the necessary changes. In response to this point of view, President Rienker emphasized that the impracticability that any remedial measures would emanate from the S.O.Y. Council, and hastily remarked: "The impeachability of the S.O.Y. in dealing with the many problems of the dormitory has made it clear that we are to hope for any improvement in dormitory conditions, we cannot expect the S.O.Y., under whose jurisdiction this committee has been all these years, to effect any of those changes."

When closely questioned in Council as to the possibility of a conflict between the new Council Dormitory Staff and the president emphasized that he wholeheartedly invited co-operation and assistance of the S.O.Y. in improving the present conditions prevailing in the dormitory. "However," he added, "if view of the past record of the S.O.Y. I am extremely skeptical as to the possibility of any aid from this source."

In urging the passage of this motion, it was pointed out that the Council Committee would be invested with jurisdiction over admissions and that the administration and that fraternities would be referred to the office, as contrasted to the previous committee, whose sole resources as far as the two committees were concerned consisted in the whip of prolific persuasion.

UNIVERSITY CLUB HEARS DR. D. S. POOL

(Continued from Page 1)

by the abolition of all constitutions while the latter, as represented by the Russian System, ultimately means the starvation of the Jewish soul. The duty of the Jew today, Rabbi Pool emphasized, is to awaken America and every land where he yet has the opportunity of free speech, to the menace of Fascism and all its implications.

An informal session of the club followed, during which Mortimer Frapp, president of the organization, heard suggestions for a proposed Purim gathering.

CALENDAR OF COMING EVENTS

Wednesday, March 6th
7:30 P.M. Fortnightly meeting of Box EXTRA Math Club.

Saturday, March 9th
8:30 P.M. Misrahe Social
Sunday, March 16th
8:30 P.M. College Council Meeting
Tuesday, March 12th
9:00 P.M. International Relations Club—Address: Miss. A. Hubbard
Saturday, March 16th
Basketball—Y. C. vs. Drake College
Sunday, March 17th
8:30 P.M. Dramatic Society
Thursday, March 21st
8:30 P.M. Debate—Y.C.Y. vs. N.Y.U.

HEBREW TEACHERS' COURSE WILL OPEN

(Continued from Page 1)

The presentation of a course in General Methods of teaching Hebrew in the Secondary Schools represents the successful culmination of a struggle of many years' duration by leading religious and militant Hebrew forces to establish Hebrew as a fully accredited language in New York City public high schools.

A few years ago, trial courses were instituted in high schools situated in strategic sections of the city. The success of this venture and the marked attendance these courses in Elementary Hebrew received were a prime factor in determining the new policy of the Board of Education.

A new compound has been discovered by the B.P.M. Chemistry class. The 50% is deadly acid at that. It gets under one's skin.

Student Bank Launched

(Continued from Page 1)

The depository, which is under the supervision of Mr. J. Malt, is open for deposits and withdrawals on Sunday, Wednesday and Fridays from 9:00 to 1:30. The minimum for withdrawal is three dollars. Withdrawals of less than five dollars must be preceded by 24 hours notice; for all other withdrawals, twenty-four hour notice must be given. Student Bank Slips can be turned in at the College Co-operative Store deposits and withdrawal slips may be obtained from Mr. Malt in the General Business Office.

Students of the Academy, Yeshiva, Teachers College are invited to this college students in the use of the newly established facility of the Yeshiva College Student Council.

YESHEIVA STUCK BY NEEDLE-MEN

(Continued from Page 2)

The turning point of the game was when the visitors beating us to it, and the ball through the loop before we could start our run of points. The "Hole" boys showed a lot offight but they must have been seeing the wild cats, because the only one who wasn't worn out at the end of the game was the time keeper. The game ended with a final score of 15-14 favoring the outsiders. So what? (Darn these pins) (yuns).