Stern Admits Largest Freshman Class Yet

Colleges all over the country have been deluged with "war babies" and Stern has not been excluded from the influx. This year, Stern has admitted 163 of these being from various backgrounds. "The mean and median are of the class of 1964 is 124.4", said Vice-Dean Vogel, who indicated that the number of applicants exceeded the normal college enrollment.

New students come from South America, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, England, Russia, and almost every country, with a few from other countries like France, Spain, and Japan. The average verbal score on the Scholastic Aptitude Test was 1100, and the average mathematics score was 514.

New students have been welcomed by the Stern College community and the community at large. The student body is being welcomed by the faculty and staff, and the newly-arrived students are gaining a sense of belonging.

Dorm Adds Fifth Floor

There is a total of 256 girls in the dormitory this year, which is compared to a previous high of 190.

To accommodate the record dormitory population, the administration has added a fifth floor. This is the first dormitory population to reach the record of 256 girls.

Dormitory population continues to grow, and the administration is working to accommodate the increased student body.

New Dormitory, Student Lounges, Classrooms, Cafeteria, Library Guaranteed Within Two Years

At opening ceremonies of the celebration of Stern's Tenth Anniversary, President Dr. Samuel Belkin, president of Yeshiva University, announced an assembly of the entire student body. "We know that you cannot continue much longer here ... We know your problems in the dormitory... We cannot make promises for everything up until after 1:30 p.m. for lunch and 8:30 for supper. To accommodate all the fraternities, their biology courses, labs extend until 7:00. Dormitory students attended these classes.

Special Events

Mark Birthday

Several events are already scheduled for Stern College's Tenth Anniversary. The first in a series of commemorative lectures will be given by A. H. Kuyper, the Bishop of the Reformed Church in America, to the students. The lecture will take place on October 12 at 12:00 noon on November 16. The lecture will be given by A. H. Kuyper, the Bishop of the Reformed Church in America, to the students. The lecture will take place on October 12 at 12:00 noon on November 16. The lecture will be given by A. H. Kuyper, the Bishop of the Reformed Church in America, to the students. The lecture will take place on October 12 at 12:00 noon on November 16.

Rockefeller, Wagner Set "Stern Month"

Stern College for Women, located by both Mayor Robert F. Wagner of the City of New York and Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York State on October 9 for its contributions to the Jewish community and to Jewish education.

Both college officials announced the theme of Stern College for Women in special programes, programs in the field of higher education, and the Stern College for Women in community service.

The college has expressed its appreciation for Stern College's contributions to the Jewish community and to Jewish education.

DEAN'S LIST

The Dean's List for the school year 1963-64 has been announced by the administration. Twenty-four students have been selected for this honor. They are as follows: Sophomores: Susanne Cooper, Shirley Seltzer, Judith Kaschke, Shira Keifer, Penni Krumholz, Rosalie Landesman, Naomi Meyer, Lynn Schindler, Gloria Winderer, and Ilene Wright. Juniors: Vivian Baumsztein, Sherry Byman, Noca Goldsmith, Susan Katz, Myra Le. Arlene Sherman, Karen Steinman, Rena Sternfeld, and Miriam Tannenbaum. Seniors: Vivian Eisenberg, Pearl Kran, Sylvia Lifshitz, Bima Levitt, and Rilla Itzick.

According to the number of students in each of the various classes, the following statistics have been obtained: In last year's Freshman class, 17% of the students made the Dean's list, while 30% of last year's Sophomores were on the Dean's List, and 7% of last year's Junior class were on the Dean's List.

NSF Grant Goes For Labs

The National Science Foundation has awarded a two-year grant to Stern College to support laboratory facilities.

The grant will enable Yeshiva University to devote over seven thousand dollars to the basic equipment to support laboratory facilities. The grant will also enable the university to make plans for the equipment for the new science laboratory.

Instruments already ordered include: "You can have all the glass, and you can have all the equipment, but until the students are actually working in the lab, it's all for naught. We need the student's involvement and participation in the lab to make the lab effective."
One Decade Old

With the advent of Stern College's Tenth Anniversary, many thanks are due to several people who have enabled the institution to become a reality from a mere idea, a finished product from the original experiment.

To Mr. and Mrs. Max Stern, who recognized the need for an orthodox, modern college, goes our deep gratitude. It is for Mr. Stern's late parents that Stern is named. As Mr. and Mrs. Stern gathered around the auditorium at last week's opening of the Tenth Anniversary celebration, one sensed a warm feeling that their dream of a "Stern College" had come true.

But Stern has only reached its adolescent years. In the five years of its student population has multiplied ten-fold. The school building cannot accommodate its 375 students. The dormitory is inadequate. As Stern enters its ten years new facilities have been promised by Dr. Belkin. There will be a dormitory, an infirmary, a library, and classrooms to suit our growing needs. For these improvements thanks are due to Dr. Belkin and the trustees of Yeshiva University who answered the call of our student body. Stern's new facilities will be complete within two years as part of "Phase B" of the "Blueprint for the Sixties." In an article in the Observer, Rabbi Sabina Muller, an alumnus of Stern College. The testing is completed and the school will be ready.

Finally, the students and alumnae of Stern must be thanked for the faith they have shown in the expansion of Stern College. The testing is completed and the school is a success.

Calling All Alumnae

A sore spot in Stern College has been alumnae participation. With more than 250 Stern graduates the worth, while Alumnae Association means more support. The activities of such an organization can be innumerable but only if the number of members is large. The alumnae hospitality service has been expanded to include more homes and should be taken advantage of by more students. It is only one way that alumnae can be of help to Stern. With the coming of new facilities the alumnae need to take more interest in their alma mater. Financial support is an important contribution. Last year, there was a large order. But their influence on others to support Stern is not asking too much. As the physical facilities expand so does the student body. Yet the classrooms can only be filled by attracting worthy young women to attend Stern. Every alumna should be walking publicly for Stern. In a small town in Illinois, in a city on the west coast or in New York City itself, Stern graduates should be on the lookout for potential "Stern material."

The Alumnae Association serves one last crucial purpose in helping former classmates keep in touch. An original goal in coming to Stern was to make lasting friendships so why not realize this goal? Whether you are an alumna of 1964 or whether you were in the first graduating class, the Stern Alumnae Association needs your support.

Superb Guidance

We take special note of this year's religious guidance program that offers to both dormitory and commuter students. In the past two weeks Rabbi Israel Wohlperger has spent hours of his valuable time speaking personally with practically the members of the Freshman Class. For the first time since a religious guidance program was instituted the response has been overwhelming. Rabbi Wohlperger is truly helping us realize our goal to create a cornerstone in which girls can feel spiritually and emotionally secure. Our thanks must extend, too, to the administration for choosing Rabbi Wohlperger as religious guidance counselor.

Mazel Tov

Engagements:

Toby Hillelman '65 to Arthurr Weiss, Stein Blumenthal '65 to ficul Arsham A. Lamson, Lillian Hecht '65 to tatrut, Noah Barry '65 to Avram Lander, Ruth Goodman '64 to Ruth Monroe.

Marriages:

Toby Hillelman '65 to Arthurr Weiss, Stein Blumenthal '65 to ficul Arsham A. Lamson, Lillian Hecht '65 to tatrut, Noah Barry '65 to Avram Lander, Ruth Goodman '64 to Ruth Monroe.

One December Old

With the advent of Stern College's Tenth Anniversary, many thanks are due to several people who have enabled the institution to become a reality from a mere idea, a finished product from the original experiment.

To Mr. and Mrs. Max Stern, who recognized the need for an orthodox, modern college, goes our deep gratitude. It is for Mr. Stern's late parents that Stern is named. As Mr. and Mrs. Stern gathered around the auditorium at last week's opening of the Tenth Anniversary celebration, one sensed a warm feeling that their dream of a "Stern College" had come true.

But Stern has only reached its adolescent years. In the five years of its student population has multiplied ten-fold. The school building cannot accommodate its 375 students. The dormitory is inadequate. As Stern enters its ten years new facilities have been promised by Dr. Belkin. There will be a dormitory, an infirmary, a library, and classrooms to suit our growing needs. For these improvements thanks are due to Dr. Belkin and the trustees of Yeshiva University who answered the call of our student body. Stern's new facilities will be complete within two years as part of "Phase B" of the "Blueprint for the Sixties." In an article in the Observer, Rabbi Sabina Muller, an alumnus of Stern College. The testing is completed and the school will be ready.

Finally, the students and alumnae of Stern must be thanked for the faith they have shown in the expansion of Stern College. The testing is completed and the school is a success.

Calling All Alumnae

A sore spot in Stern College has been alumnae participation. With more than 250 Stern graduates the worth, while Alumnae Association means more support. The activities of such an organization can be innumerable but only if the number of members is large. The alumnae hospitality service has been expanded to include more homes and should be taken advantage of by more students. It is only one way that alumnae can be of help to Stern. With the coming of new facilities the alumnae need to take more interest in their alma mater. Financial support is an important contribution. Last year, there was a large order. But their influence on others to support Stern is not asking too much. As the physical facilities expand so does the student body. Yet the classrooms can only be filled by attracting worthy young women to attend Stern. Every alumna should be walking publicly for Stern. In a small town in Illinois, in a city on the west coast or in New York City itself, Stern graduates should be on the lookout for potential "Stern material."

The Alumnae Association serves one last crucial purpose in helping former classmates keep in touch. An original goal in coming to Stern was to make lasting friendships so why not realize this goal? Whether you are an alumna of 1964 or whether you were in the first graduating class, the Stern Alumnae Association needs your support.

Superb Guidance

We take special note of this year's religious guidance program that offers to both dormitory and commuter students. In the past two weeks Rabbi Israel Wohlperger has spent hours of his valuable time speaking personally with practically the members of the Freshman Class. For the first time since a religious guidance program was instituted the response has been overwhelming. Rabbi Wohlperger is truly helping us realize our goal to create a cornerstone in which girls can feel spiritually and emotionally secure. Our thanks must extend, too, to the administration for choosing Rabbi Wohlperger as religious guidance counselor.
ANNIVERSIUM
By Tohy Unisayki and Hadasah Maultmann

A - for Auros, the nation's first liberal arts and sciences college
B - for Belkin, Belk, Havertail, Kisch, Zabor, may not all be Jewish
C - for Courses, R.S. St. Sociological Annals of Current Problems
D - for Darty, why, when we need a shirt, groan, and don't know where we're going
E - for Elevator - Not Running - Use Rear Car
F - for Falsehoods - every teacher exhibits towards his pupils. It is also for Failing
G - for Goldbeater, but he is conservative. It is also for the Groin which we shall have on our 12th Anniversary?
H - for Mrs. Hartley, New York's greatest contribution to Stern College. It is also for higher - so which we each aspire.
I - for lies. A
J - for Jews, the nation's first Liberal Arts and Science College for women under Jewish auspices
K - for Klein, Klappiman, Karlin, Krakowski.
L - for Rabbi Levine, the epitome of a modern Jewish "rabbi".
M - for the money that founded our 500,000 school. It is also for Max Stern
N - for 1894 - that was the year that was
O - for the exclamation for new hats, program changes, and added requirements.
P - for the food we eat - Parker's. It is also for Propaganda - Police Relation Q - for our steady Quest for knowledge. It is also for Quiet in the library.
R - for The Righteousness, Reverence, and Rathabism. It also for Reform.
S - for Stern College - the nation's first Liberal Arts and Science College for Jews.
T - for Tish. It is also for Ten Year Anniversary. It is also for Torah Activism.
U - for Us, for Yeshiva University, and Unity.
V - for Helen Vogel, Vitek, Victorian or Mid-Victorian. It is V is for Virtuous.
W - for Rabbi Weinberg, a new Welcome and Worry.
X - for depression which we sometimes have when we haven't handed in a paper.
Y - for Yeshiva. We take fun at Yeshiva University, that new Yeshiva, but we are proudly an integral part of it.
Z - for Zion! Hurry! I'm a senior. Also it is for the end - the end of ten years and for the future.

ANNUAL PHYSICIAN MEETING
By Rama Landesman and Ruth Shafran

For ten years the women of Stern College have spread their names along Lexington Avenue from 32nd Street to 36th Street, to the movie theatres between 32nd and 3rd Avenue, the name "Stern College" evokes various reactions. The following are examples of some localities in the area.

PKRACK REKALL DRUGS
34th and Lexington

The owner of this Stern ace-corne-optical shop was camera shy and not afraid to walk in the morning. The shop stand on the corner of 32nd and Lexington and 34th St. When told of Stern College's 10th Anniversary he said, "These Stern girls sure love flowers." He serves out flowers with flowers for Shabbat and for all big functions.

SAVE THE DATE - 14th toward Park Ave.

The news is always of interest to us, and as we journey to the news-stand located at 127 E. 34th St., we find Mrs. Sternwine who is quite a woman. Not only is she the favorite of our Dr. Belkin, but when told of our 10th Anniversary, she replied, "Those smiling girls come from all parts of the world just for a Jewish education. I am so proud of them."

MURRAYHILL THEATER
14th Street

As we seat ourselves in the soft seats of the Murrayhill Theatre, we meet a very fine gentleman by the name of Mr. Warthen, who is manager of the theatre. When told of our big event, he replied, "The college gives class to the area." In the past years in which he has served the theatre in managing capacity, he has not failed to attract the finest Stern girls in relation to the theatre. The Murrayhill does a good business and serves free coffee every night after 5:30 P.M.

President's Message

(Continued from page 2)

which we urge and recommend. Rabbi Israel Wolheisky, rabbi of "our school," is available by appointment in his office, Monday and Thursday evenings from 10:00 to 11:00. In addition, he is available for consulting students from 4:30 to 5:30 on Monday evening and 4:30 to 5:00 on Saturday afternoon. Rabbi Wolheisky is available for students registered in the college's psychology program. Appointments for consultation are arranged by placing a request in the box provided for that purpose in the counter of the main office or by contacting Rabbi Wolheisky through the mailbox. Dorm residents can arrange immediate appointments by contacting Rabbi Wolheisky, room 207 personally or through the school or dorm mailboxes.

Election Year in New Yorks

by Karen Stetman

Ah, innocent youth, when the cross bar of Autumn would to bring me to play among the red and gold leaves and frolic on the dried grass. But the time I knew, the Falls, I lower behind my curtains and must find solace in my memories. Life here in the danger zone is not to be taken lightly, for we must walk in the morning and in the evening before we have a child that could possibly turn into a battlefield every week, for the age old challenge of the real specimen of the "Candida Poloniae Sativatarum." Although both animals share the same group, "Candida Poloniae" they show a tendency to differ during the life time. This may be due to the difference in age between the two and the fact that the older claims seniority in this area. Here, the Keating New Yorkers is native to this region and has been known to live between the all dirt have in New York State. Keating argues that he holds much power in theHappy Hunting Ground where our "Candida Poloniae" is expected to go. He, however, has last minute approval should he view the misery of the aspiring eagle from Phoenix Keating's classroom. The reason that he left conventional was due to an overdose of monotony on the part of his environment. Much of the Keating cheering section may be absent this year.

His challenger, the Robert 83 Families of the grouping place the east, is recognized by his tidy mace and close knit hair. He recently migrated from the northern country of Newland Island. One older and larger has materialized at the windows of a nearby hotel and kept him occupied by their hysteresis. One brave young thing who had run down to street level was the only casualty of the day. Her finger was wildly spoken down to the first knuckle due to constant tapping on the shoulder of Roberta in the hope that he would write his name for her. As the parade moved away they waved him a fond farewell which he received with a beaming smile. And as Roberta walked past the reviewing stand she was in turn smiled. The Keating doesn't want HIS vote he is not afraid to walk in the morning sun as I am. He is not a votingew Jewish ears are ringing with policemen speaking on whose hands will shake as he goes to the polls. He is being killed with kindness and love our lives in fear - afraid of our rights shaken. He is afraid to reach the golden age of 21. Life has become simple and direct, as fear of franchise dominates our years.
Stern College For Women Opens!

MR. MAX STERN - GUEST AT Welcoming Assembly

On September 13, 1954, the day before the first day of school, Stern College held its first assembly. The purpose of the gathering was to introduce the girls to each other and the school.

Mr. Max Stern, President of the University, opened the assembly with a speech in which he welcomed the girls to Stern College. He also outlined the ideals and aims of the college.

The assembly was attended by Mrs. Max Stern and her daughter, Claire, Mr. Stern, through whose personal gift of $100,000 this college was established, addressed the students. He then extended an invitation to all the girls to come to his home that Shamay for Shabbos.

At the close of the program, pictures of the student body were taken with Mr. Belkin, Mr. and Mrs. Stern, and Mrs. Federation.

FIRST GRADUATING CLASS - 1958

WINDERMERE SERVES AS DORM

On September 8, 1954, the out-of-town students of Stern College for Women moved into their dormitory. The girls live in the Hotel Windermere, located at 92nd Street and West End Avenue, one of the finest hotels in New York City. They are in a fine Jewish neighborhood with several Orthodox synagogues nearby and a kosher restaurant available in the hotel.

There are eleven dormitory girls bailing from all parts of the United States. They are Gilda Kaplan, Blythe Millar, Evy Murland, Batzor, Frieda Gold, Braddah, Frances Cohen, Chicago; Marsha Merk, Sylvia Helfand, Hartford; Shaul and Yvonne Weisman, Philadelphia. Three girls occupy each of the rooms, which are on the fourth and fifth floors. Dr. Belkin, housemother, and also teaches French at the college, lives on the fifth floor with the girls. The rooms are spacious and nicely furnished. The hotel provides maid service. The hotel's reception room and beautiful salon, as well as other facilities, help to provide a home-like and comfortable dormitory.

Religious Guidance Begins For Dorm

A program of religious guidance will soon be inaugurated at Stern by which a specific counselor will be available to each dormitory student for consultation in any religious matter.

All of the members of the faculty who have attained seminary rabbinical ordination, regardless of the department of the College with which they are associated, will serve as counselors.

Religious Guidance

Since the administration feels that most New York students have a rabbi with whom they can confer, right now the program at Stern is limited to dormitory students.

SCRAPBOOK OF YESTERDAY

Tenth Anniversary commemorative page was compiled directly from Stern publications over the past ten years. The dates shown in each column are those from the newspaper or yearbook from which they were taken. Articles come from the first yearbook-quotepaper "In Retrospect," the yearbook "Manor" and later "Kachaviah," and the past issues of "The Observer."

APRIL 7, 1960

Outfits are Received from Stores For Stern's First Fashion Show

Almost two dozen outfits were modeled by 14 College students at the first fashion show to be held in the school, "Fashion U.S.A." as it was called, took place last Sunday, April 3, in the college auditorium.

A tea followed the display of casuals, active sportswear, ensembles and a bridal gown. Faculty, students, alumnae and friends, were invited to the affair.

The proceeds of the fashion show will go to the Yeshiva University Charity Drive, according to Barbara Rosen, '60, and Rachel Steinberg, '62, chairman.

Miss Anne Meredith, fashion coordinator of Howard Wolf, Inc., conducted the show. Barbara Gross, '61, president of the Alumni Association, was pianist during the modeling. She also accompanied Myra Kagan, '62, who sang "Autumn Leaves" and "I'll See You Again."

May 23, 1961

Scholastic Society Inducts 5 Students

Initiation of the new members of the newly formed Scholastic Society of Stern College took place May 15, at the Student Council installation of officers.

Those elected to the society include Phyllis Katz Rosenberg, Sabina Mulla, Helen Pfizenmayer, Shirley Weisam and Naoomi Wiskow. Membership is based on high academic standing — a cumulative average of 3.4 — and extra-curricular activities.

November 21, 1962

Nicer Accommodations Make Walk Worthwhile

Stern College resident facility, Hotel Prince George, 15 E. 72nd St., located for the past three years in the Hotel Collingwood, has been moved last month to the contract necessitated the move.
1960

Faculty Closeup:
Dr. Lichtenstein
By GILDA GOLDSTEIN

A strong sense of dedication and love for his religion, his students, and his work is what can best describe Dr. Abraham Lichtenstein, Professor of English at Stern College. Induced with a great deal of inspiration for life in a Torah context, he communicates his enthusiasm and insight to his students via literature, man’s “vehicle of ideas.”

It is Dr. Lichtenstein’s view that secular studies in general should be pursued, provided that they are presented in an un-adulterated way, then focused into the meaningful context of religious values. In addition, secular studies should be approached discerningly—not condemning.

1964

The college announces that as of September 1964 B.S. 31—the Jewish Family—will be a required course for all students prior to graduation. It is preferable that this course be taken in the sophomore, junior, or senior year. At present, the course is offered as a non-credit elective.

MARCH 12, 1962

But I'm sure that my name is on the list.

1959

College Chooses New Dorm; Shifts Facilities From Duane To Larger Hotel Collingwood

By RITA MARREGOVITZ

Stern College residence facilities, located for the past three years in the Hotel Duane, were moved last month to the Hotel Collingwood, 60 West 11th Street. Inadequacy of accommodations and dissatisfaction with the Duane’s service necessitated the move, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Lessin, dean of students.

By virtue of a three year contract with the Hotel Collingwood, the entire second, third, and fourth floors of the hotel have been placed under Stern College jurisdiction. Other Stern College accommodations in the hotel include a lounge and study room on the first floor and an infirmary, with accommodations for four girls on the second. Three telephones have been installed on each floor.

College Bowl Furor Ends
Yeshiva University’s College Bowl team came out on top for two weeks in the game of knowledge, and lost the third week. On Sunday, May 12, the YU team overwhelmed the University of Louisville with a score of 335-149. The team returned the following Sunday to defeat the University of Nevada by a score of 205-185. Finally, on May 26, the team was beaten by the narrow margin of 210-212 by Temple University of Philadelphia.

The four members of Yeshiva’s team were Sheldon Flit ’56, Mrs. Shifra Jangreg ’56, Lawrence Kaplan ’59, and Asher Risa ’58. Dr. Irving Linn, Professor of English at Yeshiva College, was the team’s coach.

1955

Cafeteria Seats 125
A new modern, air conditioned dining room occupies the basement of Stern College. It can accommodate approximately 125 people.

There are two fully equipped kitchens, one roast and dairy meal. In addition, there are steam tables and a soda fountain.

The furniture includes tables with pink tops and chrome and black bases, and chairs which are finished at halfway and upholstered in pink. The walls are in matching pink, with the half panelled in blonde wood. The cafeteria will open in the fall with full service available to the girls.

1959

Schnall to Speak
Dr. Meyer Schnall, generalist, will show a film on child birth and answer related questions on Wednesday evening, February 10.

MAY 29, 1959
WE'RE ACCREDITED!

The May 1960 Middle States Letter, published by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, announced the reaffirmation of accreditation of Yeshiva University. This is the result of the evaluation last November.

Since a university receives accreditation only when all of its schools are approved, Stern College is officially accredited by the association.

JUNE 6, 1963

Stern College 1954 - 1964

1960

All Yeshiva U. Schools Attend Premier Ben-Gurion’s Speech

By PHYLLIS BERNSTEIN

With his two locks of moving white hair framing a face that reflected many years of turmoil in effecting Israel’s becoming a state, David Ben-Gurion, Prime Minister of Israel, rose to speak at Yeshiva University.

Lovely despite his 73 years, despite the task of building a Jewish state out of the wilderness, Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion walked down the red-carpeted aisle of the Nathan Lamport Auditorium, mounted the stage, and stood before the students who had previously known him only as a living legend.

Ben-Gurion’s view was from the steps and stood before the students who had previously known him only as a living legend.

This service. "I hope that every one of you will study in Israel."
Class News

Senior Class

The Senior Class opened this year's activities with a Senior-Freshman Get-Together on Thursday, October 8th. A skit written by Judy Schotten and refreshments ended the evening.

The weekend of October 10th has been chosen for the Senior Dorm-Commuter Weekend. Chairs of the event are Leo Shurman and Vivian Eisenblatt. A social will be held on Saturday night, October 11st at the home of Shula Sloni; Shula Singer is chairman of the event.

Also planned for the near future is a sale of sweethearts, night-Yay, and stationary in the school lounge.

Junior Class

Jr. Graduation and Frn. Well have been appointed chairmen of the class, held Saturday night, October 24. A Junior Dorm-Commuter weekend is being planned for the second weekend of November 14 under the chairmanship of Sadasah Goldin and Vivian Kallish.

At the recent class meeting it was announced that the initials of World of Fair tickets was successful and will be reexamined at the year's. The purchase of class rings and keys is currently being discussed and will be ordered soon.

Sophomore Class

A swim party held Thursday night, October 15th, was the initial event of this year's Sophomore Get-Together. The preliminary plan, "Rarent in the Park," was won swimming. The new Freshman class is being tendered by the Sophomore class to night. An interesting trip and program refreshments have been planned.

All Freshman and Sophomore are cordially invited to attend.

The Sophomore have selected November 26 for their class weekend.

New Facilities Are Due Soon

(Continued from page 1)

The United States, today what kind of Judaism we should have.

Senior Pictures Are Due

By November 7

Intensive Orientation Aids All New Students

To initiate the new students into college life, Freshman Orientation Week took place on Wednesday Sept. 30 to Sunday Oct. 4. The activities commenced with the traditional Dean's Reception in the Student Lounge.

Co-chairman Suan Harris and Karen Shelmach planned such events as a banquet for the students as a tour of the campus of Yeshiva University, the United Nations building and the World's Fair.

New Faculty, Courses Meet Enrollment Needs

Eleven new faculty members have joined the faculty this semester, most of whom have returned after a leave of absence.

Mrs. Leah Rabin, Columbia University, is teaching political science, and Mrs. Linda Susan, Harvard University, is teaching Latin. Mr. Barry Wolfenbien, a graduate of New York University, and co-editor on an article of works of Farrell has joined the English faculty. Mrs. Bliant Wisse, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University is teaching French.

Mrs. Susan Zemplum, an instructor in sociology, has returned this semester.

Many new courses have been added to the curriculum this semester.

Chemistry 3 is a one-year course, which is a combination of general inorganic and qualitative analysis. Fine Arts 18 is a course in Egyptian art; History 41 is a 2-year course in the development of political, social, and intellectual history. Math 7 is a course in mathematics and logic. Political Science 31 is a seminar course in the problems of American public opinion. History 51 is a course on Latin American history.

The freshmen and sophomore classes have been expanded. There are two sections in Group A, B, and C and three sections in Group D. The freshmen have nine sections in Hebrew, which attracts to the many new students there at Stern.

Bowling and swimming are introduced for the first time at the Physical Education Department.

A course in Hebrew Conversation is taught this year, taught by Dr. Belkin, and Hebrew Psychology, which has not been taught for several years.

Proclamation Laud's Stern

(Continued from page 1)

From College for Women of Yeshiva University; and

"Whereas, this occasion will serve to reinforce the vital role of our citizens in furthering the unique and far-reaching progress of Yeshiva University as it moves forward to realize its historic ideals:

"Now, therefore, I, Robert F. Wagner, Mayor of the City of New York, do hereby proclaim October 24, 1964 as "Stern College for Women's month."

"Attending the City Hall event were Dr. Belkin, Mr. Stern, Dr. Vogel, Mr. Max Ehrman, chairman of the University's Board of Trustees, the Honorable Charles H. Silver, member of the Board of Trustees and executive assistant to Mayor Wagner for Educational and Industrial Development, and Miss Shoshana Gertzen, a senior at Stern. In his letter, Governor Rockefeller stated:

"The tenth anniversary of the founding of the Stern College for Women is a joyous day to be celebrated proudly and happily. This institution, the United States' first liberal arts and science college for women under Jewish auspices, has blossomed into an outstanding educational center, grounding hundreds of young women from every part of the nation and abroad with a unique dual program in the Jewish heritage with a superb course of teaching in the liberal arts and sciences.

"An eloquent and practical proof of the value of Stern College for Women is to be found in the number of the many Latins and Jews who have achieved distinction in the arts, professions and sciences. They include also Albert Einstein, devoted mothers and communal leaders who contribute to the spiritual and social well-being of the community.

"My best wishes for a happy celebration."

Mrs. Sara Rabin, Columbia University, is teaching political science, and Mrs. Linda Susan, Harvard University, is teaching Latin. Mr. Barry Wolfenbien, a graduate of New York University, and co-editor on an article of the works of Farrell, has joined the English faculty. Mrs. Bliant Wisse, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University is teaching French.

New Faculty, Courses Meet Enrollment Needs

Eleven new faculty members have joined the faculty this semester, most of whom have returned after a leave of absence.

Mrs. Leah Rabin, Columbia University, is teaching political science, and Mrs. Linda Susan, Harvard University, is teaching Latin. Mr. Barry Wolfenbien, a graduate of New York University, and co-editor on an article of the works of Farrell, has joined the English faculty. Mrs. Bliant Wisse, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University is teaching French.

Mrs. Susan Zemplum, an instructor in sociology, has returned this semester.

Many new courses have been added to the curriculum this semester.

Chemistry 3 is a one-year course, which is a combination of general inorganic and quantitative analysis. Fine Arts 18 is a course in Egyptian art; History 41 is a 2-year course in the development of political, social, and intellectual history. Math 7 is a course in mathematics and logic. Political Science 31 is a seminar course in the problems of American public opinion. History 51 is a course on Latin American history.

The freshmen and sophomore classes have been expanded. There are two sections in Group A, B, and C and three sections in Group D. The freshmen have nine sections in Hebrew, which attracts to the many new students there at Stern.

Bowling and swimming are introduced for the first time at the Physical Education Department.

A course in Hebrew Conversation is taught this year, taught by Dr. Belkin, and Hebrew Psychology, which has not been taught for several years.

Proclamation Laud's Stern

(Continued from page 1)

From College for Women of Yeshiva University; and

"Whereas, this occasion will serve to reinforce the vital role of our citizens in furthering the unique and far-reaching progress of Yeshiva University as it moves forward to realize its historic ideals:

"Now, therefore, I, Robert F. Wagner, Mayor of the City of New York, do hereby proclaim October 24, 1964 as "Stern College for Women's month."

"Attending the City Hall event were Dr. Belkin, Mr. Stern, Dr. Vogel, Mr. Max Ehrman, chairman of the University's Board of Trustees, the Honorable Charles H. Silver, member of the Board of Trustees and executive assistant to Mayor Wagner for Educational and Industrial Development, and Miss Shoshana Gertzen, a senior at Stern. In his letter, Governor Rockefeller stated:

"The tenth anniversary of the founding of the Stern College for Women is a joyous day to be celebrated proudly and happily. This institution, the United States' first liberal arts and science college for women under Jewish auspices, has blossomed into an outstanding educational center, grounding hundreds of young women from every part of the nation and abroad with a unique dual program in the Jewish heritage with a superb course of teaching in the liberal arts and sciences."

"An eloquent and practical proof of the value of Stern College for Women is to be found in the number of the many Latins and Jews who have achieved distinction in the arts, professions and sciences. They include also Albert Einstein, devoted mothers and communal leaders who contribute to the spiritual and social well-being of the community."

"My best wishes for a happy celebration."

Mrs. Sara Rabin, Columbia University, is teaching political science, and Mrs. Linda Susan, Harvard University, is teaching Latin. Mr. Barry Wolfenbien, a graduate of New York University, and co-editor on an article of the works of Farrell, has joined the English faculty. Mrs. Bliant Wisse, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University is teaching French.

New Faculty, Courses Meet Enrollment Needs

Eleven new faculty members have joined the faculty this semester, most of whom have returned after a leave of absence.

Mrs. Sara Rabin, Columbia University, is teaching political science, and Mrs. Linda Susan, Harvard University, is teaching Latin. Mr. Barry Wolfenbien, a graduate of New York University, and co-editor on an article of the works of Farrell, has joined the English faculty. Mrs. Bliant Wisse, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University is teaching French.

Mrs. Susan Zemplum, an instructor in sociology, has returned this semester.

Many new courses have been added to the curriculum this semester.

Chemistry 3 is a one-year course, which is a combination of general inorganic and quantitative analysis. Fine Arts 18 is a course in Egyptian art; History 41 is a 2-year course in the development of political, social, and intellectual history. Math 7 is a course in mathematics and logic. Political Science 31 is a seminar course in the problems of American public opinion. History 51 is a course on Latin American history.

The freshmen and sophomore classes have been expanded. There are two sections in Group A, B, and C and three sections in Group D. The freshmen have nine sections in Hebrew, which attracts to the many new students there at Stern.

Bowling and swimming are introduced for the first time at the Physical Education Department.

A course in Hebrew Conversation is taught this year, taught by Dr. Belkin, and Hebrew Psychology, which has not been taught for several years.