Stern Adds Classes And New Faculty

New to the staff of Stern College this year are four faculty members and a library assistant. Dr. Marshall Sklar, a leading sociologist, has written for various academic journals and has published a book on contemporary Judaism. He will teach advanced so-tiology courses at Stern.

Dr. Ellen Robinson, who comes from Habor-William Smith, is an assistant professor of Pol-sychology; she recently was a National Institute of Health Grant and will soon be experimenting with 40 rats in the Psychology lab.

Mr. Max Spitzer, instructor in English, is currently working for his doctorate in comparative literature at Columbia. Mrs. Lin-dolfsky and Mrs. Minnif Horowitz lecture in History. Mrs. Kober was graduated from Barnard and New York University with an M.A., degree from Brooklyn College and is still teaching at Columbia where she received her M.A.

Bach Jerry Hochbaum is a lecturer in Sociology. He was graduated from New York College for Girls and received his M.A. from Columbia University with a degree in Hebrew and was awarded his M.A. from Brooklyn College and is teaching at Stern College for Girls.

Mr. Bivery returns to Stern to teach Hebrew after a leave of absence. He also teaches the conversational Hebrew course.

New courses being offered this year are international relationships with Professor Gilbert. Dr. George S. Sabra, head of the History of Oral Law with Rabbi Shimon B. Cohen, and Bible Exegesis with Dr. Shain.

Rabbi Abraham Figen, library assistant, received his B.A. from U.C.L.A. and his masters in philo-
osophy from New York Uni-

Council Starts Book Exchange

This new year in Stern College is the Student Council Book Exchange. The idea of the exchange is to organize and centralize the selling of books among the students of Stern. The proceeds of the Exchange is to save the students their time and money.

The Book Exchange operates in the sleeping lounge adjur-
ing the auditorium. Work began on September 9 and will continue until September 26. Students are asked to claim their money or unsold books before they leave the exchange on September 26. Co-chairs of the Exchange are Natalie Kinn, Barbara Hollander, and Ellen Schultz.

New Year's Message
From Dr. Belkin

Every Rosh Hashanah Jews throughout the world will pray for the rebuilding of the Temple and the return of the king of the Lord. And never before in human history has the need for divine rulership as it is now the case. When, if it is some years since we went through the most destructive war in the history of mankind, we are still floundering in our search for a new pattern upon which to reconstruct the world.

If at this moment we do not turn our hearts hel-

Dorm Dwellers Discuss Rules

The first meeting of the dormi-
ty council was held Wed-

Grads Teach College Courses

Three recent graduates of Stern College have accepted poitions at Stern College for Girls.

Dr. Hershberg, class of '67, is teaching at Brooklyn College.

Stern Orientation Aids Class of '67

Frosh Orientation week at Stern College began with more than one hundred new students and forty
"big sisters" attending the reception and convocation for new students. Convocation was held on Tuesday, September 3. Welcoming addresses were delivered by Dr. Ellen Robinson, who comes from Habor-William Smith, is an assistant professor of Pol-sychology; she recently was a National Institute of Health Grant and will soon be experimenting with 40 rats in the Psychology lab.

Dr. Max Spitzer, instructor in English, is currently working for his doctorate in comparative literature at Columbia. Mrs. Lin-
dolfsky and Mrs. Minnif Horowitz lecture in History. Mrs. Kober was graduated from Barnard and New York University with an M.A., degree from Brooklyn College and is teaching at Stern College for Girls.

Mr. Bivery returns to Stern to teach Hebrew after a leave of absence. He also teaches the conversational Hebrew course.

New courses being offered this year are international relationships with Professor Gilbert. Dr. George S. Sabra, head of the History of Oral Law with Rabbi Shimon B. Cohen, and Bible Exegesis with Dr. Shain.

Rabbi Abraham Figen, library assistant, received his B.A. from U.C.L.A. and his masters in philo-
osophy from New York Uni-

Council Starts Book Exchange

This new year in Stern College is the Student Council Book Exchange. The idea of the exchange is to organize and centralize the selling of books among the students of Stern. The proceeds of the Exchange is to save the students their time and money.

The Book Exchange operates in the sleeping lounge adjur-
ing the auditorium. Work began on September 9 and will continue until September 26. Students are asked to claim their money or unsold books before they leave the exchange on September 26. Co-chairs of the Exchange are Natalie Kinn, Barbara Hollander, and Ellen Schultz.

New Year's Message
From Dr. Belkin

Every Rosh Hashanah, Jews throughout the world will pray for the rebuilding of the Temple and the return of the king of the Lord. And never before in human history has the need for divine rulership as it is now the case. When, if it is some years since we went through the most destructive war in the history of mankind, we are still floundering in our search for a new pattern upon which to reconstruct the world.

If at this moment we do not turn our hearts hel-

Dorm Dwellers Discuss Rules

The first meeting of the dormi-
ty council was held Wed-

Grads Teach College Courses

Three recent graduates of Stern College have accepted po-
itions at Stern College for Girls.

Dr. Hershberg, class of '67, is teaching at Brooklyn College.

Stern Orientation Aids Class of '67

Frosh Orientation week at Stern College began with more than one hundred new students and forty
"big sisters" attending the reception and convocation for new students. Convocation was held on Tuesday, September 3. Welcoming addresses were delivered by Dr. Ellen Robinson, who comes from Habor-William Smith, is an assistant professor of Pol-
sychology; she recently was a National Institute of Health Grant and will soon be experimenting with 40 rats in the Psychology lab.

Dr. Max Spitzer, instructor in English, is currently working for his doctorate in comparative literature at Columbia. Mrs. Lin-
dolfsky and Mrs. Minnif Horowitz lecture in History. Mrs. Kober was graduated from Barnard and New York University with an M.A., degree from Brooklyn College and is teaching at Stern College for Girls.

Mr. Bivery returns to Stern to teach Hebrew after a leave of absence. He also teaches the conversational Hebrew course.

New courses being offered this year are international relationships with Professor Gilbert. Dr. George S. Sabra, head of the History of Oral Law with Rabbi Shimon B. Cohen, and Bible Exegesis with Dr. Shain.

Rabbi Abraham Figen, library assistant, received his B.A. from U.C.L.A. and his masters in philo-
osophy from New York Uni-

Council Starts Book Exchange

This new year in Stern College is the Student Council Book Exchange. The idea of the exchange is to organize and centralize the selling of books among the students of Stern. The proceeds of the Exchange is to save the students their time and money.

The Book Exchange operates in the sleeping lounge adjur-
ing the auditorium. Work began on September 9 and will continue until September 26. Students are asked to claim their money or unsold books before they leave the exchange on September 26. Co-chairs of the Exchange are Natalie Kinn, Barbara Hollander, and Ellen Schultz.
Off To A Good Start

With due apologies to General Electric, progress is our most important product also, and it is always encouraging to see worthwhile effort efficiently and effectually for the benefit of all concerned. This year, for the first time, the entire Freshman Class will participate in Freshman Week. The out-of-town girls were able to meet and get to know the commuters through group activity and by spending Shabbos together. The entire week's program should lead to greater class unity than has ever before been experienced at Stern College.

The extensive religious orientation, suggested by the Student Council, which was instituted this year culminated in a most inspiring and enjoyable Shabbos under the capable guidance of Rabbi Joshua Shmidman. This excellent beginning must be followed up through the year under the joint leadership of Student Council and the administration and with the full cooperation of the student body.

Ken Schopfer's Notes

May I take this opportunity to add a word of appreciation to my classmates back to Stern. To freshmen especially, I extend a most sincere welcome, and the hope that this, your first year at college, will fulfill your expectations. You will find, as have many girls before you, that here at Stern you may start enlarging and inner sides which come from an insight into our Jewish heritage and understanding of our modern world through academic application.

We have before us an opportunity beyond value—a year at college. What we do with it is an individual decision. The ex-erience can only be rewarding with the realization that it is un-avoidable. When it has passed, it will be missed or will it be remembered fondly as a time of personal development and un-derstanding? If we want a suc-cerful year, it can be ours to value for all ways if we but inject our enthusiasm and interest into the vast resources that are offered to us.

These are of such a va-

Library Rules

Mr. Cohen, college librarian reminds students of the following rules now in effect in the Stern College Library:

1. Library hours are from 9-10 on Monday through Thursday 9-12 on Friday and 1-5 on Sunday.

2. To borrow a book, the book card found inside the book cover must be signed and a due-date card obtained for each book borrowed. A student who has a book without having it properly charged-in is subject to a fine of $5.00 or suspension from classes.

3. There is no limit on the number of books a student may borrow at any given time. A fine of 10 cents per day per book is charged for each book returned late.

4. Books from the stacks will be permitted to circulate for a period of two weeks, provided there is no request for the book. If a student wishes to take out a book which is in circulation, the book may be called in at the end of the week.

5. Certain books which contain important readings are kept on reserve. Students who wish to use a reserve book in the library after 5 p.m. will sign for it in advance on the day they desire it. If there is no request for it, the book may be taken out at 8 p.m. for overnight study. However, this does not apply to single copies of such books available from both Stern College and the Jewish Institute of Religion. Reserve books must be returned before 9 a.m. the day after they are borrowed. Failure to return these books on time incurs a fine of 25 cents for the first half hour, and 25 cents for every hour thereafter.

6. Reserve books may be taken out of the library for one hour duration, provided the student obtains permission from one of our assistants. There will be a fine of $1.00 per book for books taken more than 15 minutes.

7. Fees are to be paid immediately upon return of the overdue book. Students who do not have money to pay for the fine may borrow from the Student Loan Fund at the of-

8. Reserve books are to be checked out and returned deto the desk. They should not circulate among the students.

9. Students are expected to study quietly in the library out of consideration for other stu-

10. Students are permitted to bring into the library only those books and note-pads which are needed for study in the li-

Club Hour

Previews At Assembly

On Tuesday, September 19th, the club assembly was held in the Koch Auditorium. Edith Stylor, the view president of Student Council, began by introducing the club coordinator, Evelyn Blatt. Miss Blatt spoke of the importance of clubs in college. She explained that a student body would be automatically active in the clubs at Stern College. "The clubs are only as good as you, the students, make them," noted Miss Blatt.

Among those who spoke for the various clubs were: Chorus, Sue Mail; Current Events, Adele Silver; Debate, Sue Blumenfeld; Yavnah, Neda Israel; Israel Dance, Dorothea Engelberg; Science, Myra Land; Hospital Volunteer, Fritzie Schultes; Art, Susan Rubel; Yiddish, Elaine Leifer; Spanish, Marilyn Goldberg; French, Gita Zuwil; German, Elizabeth Zaksman; Religious, Arie Katz; Music, Vicky Novick; Y.U. '62; Y.U. '63 to Sammy Offer, Aviva Shenfild '62 to Bernard Frankel; Nitsa Lebovic '52 to Yoel Rabinowitz.

Engagement:

Judy Katz '68 to Sammy Offer, Aviva Shenfild '62 to Bernard Frankel; Nitsa Lebovic '52 to Yoel Rabinowitz.

Mazel Tov

Muriel Brinman '58 to Gerty Mandel

Engagement:

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Marriage:

Betty Rosenberg '64 to Myra Lee Hirsch; Dorothy Saper '63 to Abe Cohen.

Visitors:

Judy Frank '63 to Herman Presby, Dorothy Segal '63 to Abe Cohen, DECIEER Frer '62 to Lette Lindenberg, Y.U. '61.

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Frida Freiber '62 to Steven Stein.

Vicki Novick '62 to Mort Singer.

Students Specialty:

Dr. I. K. Korn on the loss of his brother. May he be comforted among the mountains of Zion.

Cedulence:

Dr. M. L. Lown on the loss of his brother. May he be comforted among the mountains of Zion.

Student Council Meetings

Mrs. Adinoff to Sammy Offer, Aviva Shenfild '62 to Bernard Frankel; Nitsa Lebovic '52 to Yoel Rabinowitz.

Engagement:

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Marriage:

Betty Rosenberg '64 to Myra Lee Hirsch; Gerty Mandel Mandel.

Engagement:

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Marriage:

Betty Rosenberg '64 to Myra Lee Hirsch; Gerty Mandel Mandel.

Engagement:

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Marriage:

Betty Rosenberg '64 to Myra Lee Hirsch; Gerty Mandel Mandel.

Engagement:

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Marriage:

Betty Rosenberg '64 to Myra Lee Hirsch; Gerty Mandel Mandel.

Engagement:

Tova to Mike Spilky.

Marriage:

Betty Rosenberg '64 to Myra Lee Hirsch; Gerty Mandel Mandel.