Lucas Claims Criminals Are Diseased Men

An interesting study of crime and criminals is being conducted in the Santa Clara area by the students of Yeshiva University, as the result of a recent conference held at the Yeshiva University College of Law. The conference was called to examine the question of crime and its relationship to society, and to discuss the methods by which society can combat crime.

The students of Yeshiva University College of Law were invited to attend the conference, and the students of the College of Law were among the participants. The conference was held on the campus of Yeshiva University, and it was attended by students from various schools and institutions.

Dedicate Current Issue Of Talpiot

To Famous Rabbi

Rabbi Samuel E. Mintz, editor of the current issue of Talpiot, dedicated it to the memory of Rabbi Yehuda Levin, one of the founders of the Institute. Rabbi Yehuda Levin was a pioneer in the field of Jewish education, and his contributions to the field of education are well known.

Anti-Semitism Threat Finds No Unified Jewish Defense

By Louis Bernstein

In spite of the latest efforts to report that anti-Semitism is at a standstill, two events have occurred during the past few weeks which have brought joy and solace to all the faithful in our city, and to add to the general rout, the Anti-Defamation League of the Beil Brothers, which was fighting against "The Daily News" causing general demoralization in the campaign against fascism and anti-Semitism in New York City.

The May Quinn case has become a "cause celebre" in the fight to further the dignity and respectability of the Jewish people and of the system of the largest city in the world, whose Jewish population is roughly equal to that of the entire city. The case has dragged on for two years, with executives of the Board of Education extending themselves to avoid facing the issue and to protect Miss Quinn. It was only after demonstrated protests by labor and civic organizations that Miss Quinn was finally brought to a departmental trial.

Frontiers Aid Quinn

Miss Quinn was charged with uttering several anti-Semitic and un-American statements in her Junior High School civics class in the Bensonhurst section of Brooklyn. These remarks reached some of the other teachers and parents. A complaint against her was lodged but only because of pressure by the parental, labor and civic organizations, Assemblyman Philip Schuler, and other individuals, did the frontiers aid. But Miss Quinn would have been suspended if the schools Wade finally order a trial.

To Miss Quinn's side rallied all the professional religious leaders of the city. Father Edward Lodge Curran, Chaplain to the Senate in the past, assisted Christian Front leaders of pro-Franco rallies in New York. Father McLaughlin, a member of the Congregation of the Mission, was also a member of the札

RETRACTED: A careless error in our stated order of accuracy, we wish to retract our last week's retraction on Morton Garber, Biala, and "Baal Shem Tov". Morton Garber has not raised his voice in the defense of the Babad, "Baal Shem Tov" has not delivered his book to the Babad, and "Baal Shem Tov" has not written his book to the Babad.

Joe Lulled: In this place, no. Wellington Wade finally edged Curran, Greathall, and the others out of the Assembly. New York's Assemblyman Philip Quinn of the Other, has by this time, been the subject of much discussion and gossip. Now both the pressure of Ruth Keh, Allen for the Assembly, and the pressure of the Babad, "Baal Shem Tov" have been exerted on Wellington Wade, who has finally climbed the "Ladder" to success and now holds the position of Ruth Keh's, Allen for the Assembly.

By Pamnese-Smith in (Morning Journal) Pamnese is our class; good-looking contribution to the sports world. The best senior on the basketball squad, Hy was the perfect athlete in the game. A former president of T.I. has had his office and class made over, and the Don Joes with the Team, they have taken up all of T.O.'s courses themselves.

The Daily News has developed into a fine Talmudic student under the tutelage of his present master, who is a man of letters. (J.B.) Marry has recently developed a "Bimah" for philosophy, but not quite grasping. A language major, he specializes in aged-methods of education.

Jerry Unconscious

We are allowing ourselves to be frightened by the security by the popularity of the "Hands Off" policy which our institution has assumed in regard to Zionism, but perhaps there is a question of partisanship involved. All other organizations have proven themselves competent or unable to tackle the problem. This is not to say that a majority of the Jewish alumni could see fit to align itself with fascist and defend Mr. J.E. Pollak, President of the Board of Regents, for example, deem it their duty to add its prestige to those of the non-Jewish. Certainly, however, no "partisanship" can be allowed to interfere in the battle against the Jewish "Hands Off" policy. Mites Ring Down Carlsbad On Dismal Hoop Campaign

The curtain having fallen on the season, the players having taken their last showers, the handful of rebated tickets ticked off the directors' ledger book for school at the last minute, the fast and the fadie having heated in the battle cry that was Charley Brown's, Carlsbad's basketball season has wrapped itself in national competition this year.

In all, while strengthened immensely by the return of pilots "Red" Sardzkech, Yeshiva never lost sight of the point that the best athletes metropolitan basketball had to offer, Mary was well known to the student body holding down the number four slot. He was hosted only by such all-time greats as Coach Bob Hinkle, coach of L.U., Harry Riddick of St. John's, and Sid Tannenbaum of M.Y. So, when coach Dennis Forman and Frank Mangiapane, both all-Mid Province, took the court against a very strong group, there was no doubt it was a fine match.

In the end, there was no doubt as to who was the winner of the match. The college luncheonette.

Some Practical Advice To
The Prospective Advisors

By Ruth Shafe

From the appearance of things, it looks as though the college student scene is about to become a busy one. You must have noticed the headlines: "300,000 Students to March," "Million Dollar Sale Simples," etc. But, what? You are exhausted, aren't you? You must have thought about the situation before, but why? Because you have to consider a few important things:

1. The cost of living.
2. The availability of jobs.
3. The importance of education.

In the past, I have been known to have a few friends and am well-liked by all students. Despite these problems, I have never been known to have a social life. It seems that the Roos Hayscholar feel self-con-cious. Not only this, but I can't fit into the college scene anymore as is always become a more maturous participant this year. I am also
